Ivory is a hard, white material from the tusks (traditionally elephants') and teeth of animals, that consists mainly of dentine, one of the physical structures of teeth and tusks. The chemical structure of the teeth and tusks of mammals is the same, regardless of the species of origin. The trade in certain teeth and tusks other than elephant is well established and widespread; therefore, "ivory ...

I almost always used ArrayList.If I'm only working with the the ends of a list, it's a deque (or queue) and I use the ArrayDeque implementation. The reason is that even though the array-based implementations might waste some memory on empty slots (when I can't predict the necessary capacity), for small collections this is is comparable to the overhead of all the node instances in a linked list ...
