Poems About Family Relationships

Family Poems about Relationships. Our family is the proverbial egg that we were hatched from. Everything about who we are, both our nature and nurture comes from our family. Often in western society, we stray far from our family and may not talk to them for years at a time. We may feel that we have nothing in common with them.

Classic Popular Poetry about Family. To be part of a family is to be in a relationship. There is an opportunity for a closeness and trust that cannot occur outside family. With this possibility for closeness is the possibility of hatred and estrangement. It is not easy to maintain positive relationships with those that we are naturally closest to.

Enduring Ties: Poems of Family Relationships. Reviewer Lance E. Larsen, A seasoned poetry editor of a national magazine with a circulation of 500,000 admitted he didn't much care for poetry anthologies. It wasn't the poems he minded (thank goodness), so much as the sometimes awkward umbrellas under which the poems were forced to gather. "Not ...

I wrote this poem sitting in the airport one night waiting to fly home to see my family. My mom died when she was 34 and I was only 15, it was a very tough time and none of my family was there except my sister and brother. We became so close after that, they are my Bestfriends and my angels. Going thru a tragic event like this, it changes your whole perspective on life and you live everyday as ...
