Requested Surrender Trust In Me

Surrender by Cheap Trick except it's just after sunset and your friends stopped just outside of a small town you were visiting for the day, and everyone piles out of the Subaru and it plays kinda quiet from the stereo while you all lay on the hood. You see your first shooting star together. Crickets are chirping; your friends are opening up every bag of chips that you have and laughing.

I've written a lot on this blog (here and here, among many others) about the mindset of depressed partners who are pulling away from their closest relationships. It's important to look at the other side too - the desire to return. Hopefully, they'll come back from the illness, whether they've remained at home while they've suffered through it or left to try to work it out on their own.
