Addendum: On December 12, 1998, the left arm of SCP-2406 was uncovered 32 km from its body. Evidence of impact suggest the object had been hurled to its location shortly after being severed from SCP-2406's torso. The arm is equipped with what has since been hypothesized to be a weapon of non-terrestrial origins and anomalous manufacture, design, and capabilities.

The Series . After a promising start as a true science-fiction ensemble piece, the second season became more of a camp parody of science fiction, a response to the overwhelming success of archival series Batman. By third season, it was evident from the ratings that another change was needed, and the show began to slowly shift back toward "serious" science fiction.
