Christian Zionism is a belief among some Christians that the return of the Jews to the Holy Land and the establishment of the state of Israel in 1948 were in accordance with Bible prophecy. The term began to be used in the mid-20th century, superseding Christian Restorationism.. Traditional Catholic thought did not consider Zionism in any form. However Christian advocacy grew after the ...

"Broad support for the State of Israel is a central tenet of the Zionism Forward campaign launched by the American Zionist Movement. We gathered together in the Capitol after the midterm elections, and just prior to the new Congress, so our elected officials and community leaders could address how we can unite across party and political lines in support of Israel, whose existence continues ...

American Zionist Movement

Zionism as an organized movement is generally considered to have been founded by Theodor Herzl in 1897. However, the history of Zionism began earlier and is related to Judaism and Jewish history. The Hovevei Zion, or the Lovers of Zion, were responsible for the creation of 20 new Jewish settlements in Palestine between 1870 and 1897.. Before the Holocaust, the movement's central aims were the ...

As a modern political movement, Zionism was created to achieve political independence for the Jewish people in the Holy Land. Although scholarly literature is divided about the exact origins of the movement, this summary begins with the history of Zionism from its roots in the Hibat Tsiyon period (1881-1897). This section is followed by an account of five additional stages of Zionist ...
